NB:

- Students holding a registration certificate for foreign nationals (unlimited stay - B card) are not covered by point 1. This provision only applies to students with a settlement permit (C card or K card) or long-term resident status (D card or L card).
- Students holding one of the following cards: B, F, F "Membre Famille UE" ("EU Family Member" - ART 10 DIR 2004/38/EC), F+ or F+ "Membre Famille UE" ("EU Family Member" - ART 20 DIR 2004/38/EC), E or EU "Enregistrement" ("Registration" - ART 8 DIR 2004/38/EC), E+ or EU+ "Séjour permanent" ("Permanent Residence" - ART 19 DIR 2004/38/EC), E+. Similarly, those listed in point 5 are deemed to be assimilated. As with the abovementioned cards, the M.50 TUE residence permit is considered proof of long-term or permanent residence.¹
- Status of diplomats and their relatives: Foreign nationals with the status of diplomat or the relative of a diplomat receive a special residence permit issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Due to this special status, they are not registered with the local authority (foreign nationals register and population register). Therefore, the issue of a special residence permit is sufficient.¹
- Official document proving filiation: household composition or, if they do not live at the same address as their parents, their birth certificate + father's or mother's identity card.
- Guardianship documents must be legalised by the Belgian embassies or consulates in the students' countries of origin.
- Foreign marriage certificates must be officially certified in Belgium by a local authority (see household composition).
- Legal cohabitation: document issued by the local authority certifying that a declaration of legal cohabitation has been registered.
- British nationals:
 - 1) New British national student:
All British national students who are registered for the first time at an FWB higher education institution are subject to the higher fees unless they meet one of the assimilation conditions.

- 2) British national student registered at an FWB higher education institution prior to the 2021-2022 academic year:
- From the 2021-2022 academic year, British students who, after having obtained an academic degree, register on another academic degree course (regardless of the level of study) is no longer deemed to have met the conditions referred to in Article 3, §1². They will be subject to the increased fees (extract from "VM financement").
 - British students already registered on a course of study will continue to be assimilated for the whole of the course in accordance with Article 3, §2² and will therefore not pay the increased fees.
 - British students already registered on a degree course who change their course of study, in accordance with Article 5 4°, will continue to be assimilated for the entire degree course in accordance with Article 3, §2² and will therefore not pay the increased fees.
 - British students already registered on a degree course who are no longer eligible for funding will continue to be assimilated for the entire degree course in accordance with Article 3, §2² and will therefore not pay the increased fees.
 - British students who suspend their studies during the cycle, even for a long period, will continue to be assimilated for the entire cycle in accordance with Article 3, §2² and will therefore not pay the increased fees.

² Decree of 11th April 2014 adapting the funding of higher education institutions to the new organisation of studies and Decree of 17th July 2020 determining the fundability of students for the 2020-2021 academic year. Extract from the VDM, June 2023 version: "Article 3 defines the nationality or similar criteria that students must meet in order to be fundable [from a nationality point of view]. These criteria may be met at the time of first registration or at the time of a subsequent registration, following a change in situation, but without retroactive effect. Once these criteria have been checked for one registration, they no longer need to be checked for the rest of the course. For students who are not nationals of a European Union Member State, the conditions aim to demonstrate, for the student or one of their relatives, the existence of a sufficient link with Belgian territory or institutions."
